```

The diagram illustrates the relationship between various Linux distributions and their base systems. It features several labels and symbols:

- (main): A label in blue text, appearing twice.
- (base): A label in blue text, appearing once.
- Astra Linux: A label in blue text, appearing twice.
- tar-: A label in blue text, appearing once.
- Firefox: A label in blue text, appearing once.
- Chromium: A label in blue text, appearing once.
- « »: A label in blue text, appearing once.

The diagram uses a combination of black and blue text and symbols (circles and squares) to represent different components and their relationships. The labels are arranged in a way that suggests a hierarchy or flow of information, with some labels appearing in parentheses and others in a more direct format.
